If you’re like most college students, you probably need money and want a convenient way of making it. As the largest and most flexible student employer on campus, Tufts Dining can help.

We hope that you consider being a part of the Tufts Dining team!

We offer financial rewards as well as great work experience, friendships, and a fun work environment. We employ work-study students as well as non-work study students.

Wide Variety of Job Opportunities
Students can work at one of ten diverse locations across campus. Learn more about each location by reading below and visiting our website at http://dining.tufts.edu.

Carmichael and Dewick-MacPhie Dining Centers offer the most employment opportunities. Carmichael, located uphill, and Dewick, located downhill, are exciting places to work because of the high volume of customers. Jobs include working in the dishroom, restocking serving areas, checking ID’s, and maintaining the salad bar. Jobs are available as early as 7am and as late as 10pm.

Hodgdon Food-on-the-Run offers a wide array of popular food stations under one roof. Jobs include food preparation, general work, and cashiering. Shifts can begin as early as 8am and end as late as 10:30pm weekdays except Friday when Hodgdon closes at 4pm.

Commons Marketplace is located in the Campus Center. Jobs include food preparation, short-order cooking, and cashiering. Open until midnight Sunday-Wednesday and until 2am Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.
