What’s New This Year

Tufts Dining welcomes spring 2021! We are excited you are here.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Meals from Tufts Dining when you arrive on campus:

When to Get to Campus and are going through the onboarding process, how do I get food? When you check in The Gantcher Center, the Tufts Dining team will welcome you and invite you to take meals with you. You can choose menu items for Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner that will nourish you until your first negative COVID-19 test result. Our food selection can accommodate many dietary preferences.

Meals from Commons, Hodgdon, Hotung and Kindlevan Café, Pax et Lox, and SMFA Café can only be ordered through the mobile app for pickup.

What's New This Year

NEW HOURS THIS SPRING:

Meals on campus are available the Tufts Dining website, and the mobile app will show if a location is currently open.

Carmichael and Dewick-MacPhie have three meal periods and close for 30 minutes between each one for deeper cleaning.

If you need to return to Close Contact Quarantine or Isolation, how do I get food? During Initial Onboarding or if placed in Close Contact Quarantine, any student – undergraduate or graduate, living on- or off-campus, is eligible for meals. To get meals during Initial Onboarding or if placed in Close Contact Quarantine, use the Tufts Dining2YOU food delivery program.

What's New This Year

Getting Started – While waiting to enter a building, or inside a building, follow the 6ft physical distancing guidelines.

Carmichael and Dewick-MacPhie have three meal periods and close for 30 minutes between each one for deeper cleaning.

Hand Washing – The best defense against any virus is a 20 second washing of your hands with soap and water. An interesting fact – washing in colder water and drying your hands with a paper towel can actually save you money!

MEAL PLAN SIZES

Tufts Dining is committed to the safety of our greatest resource – our employees. All Tufts Dining employees are required to wear a face covering at all times while on campus. As employees work long hours in close proximity to each other and our guests, face coverings are a crucial part of the safety protocol. The face coverings required are in accordance with the current Massachusetts mandate to wear face masks in all public places, indoors or outdoors, you must wear a face covering to enter any Tufts Dining facility.
